

INCOME LIMITS NOTICE

CITY OF FALLS CHURCH AFFORDABLE DWELLING UNIT (ADU) PROGRAM

The City of Falls Church Housing and Human Services (HHS) Division has established 2007 income limits for the Affordable Dwelling Unit (ADU) Program. The new income limits are based on the new U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Area Median Income for the Northern Virginia MSA in 2007.

Effective as of April 23, 2007, the income limits for the ADU program will be as follows:

Number of People	Qualifying Income Range
1	$33,075 - $52,920
2	$37,800 - $60,480
3	$42,525 - $68,040
4	$47,250 - $75,600
5	$51,030 - $81,648

Beginning April 23, 2007 interested applicants, who submit their application must meet the new income limits to qualify for the ADU program. Applications that have been submitted before April 23, 2007 will be subject to the 2006 income limits. Participants currently in the program will need to meet the new income limits at the time of recertification.

For additional information about the program, contact the City of Falls Church Housing and Human Services Division at 703-248-5005; TTY 711.
